Reasons for disqualification

A person is disqualified from being a trustee/local governor if they:

- Are aged under 18 at the date of their election or appointment.
 - Are a current pupil at an academy in the Trust.
 - Are incapable by reason of illness or injury of managing or administering their own affairs;
 - Are absent without the permission of the trustees from all their meetings held within a period of six months, and the trustees resolve that their office be vacated;
 - Has been declared bankrupt and their estate has been seized from their possession for the benefit of their creditors and the declaration or seizure has not been discharged, annulled or reduced;
 - Has been the subject of a bankruptcy restrictions order or an interim order;
 - Are subject to any of the disqualifying reasons set out in The Charity Commission's 'Automatic disqualification rules for charity trustees and charity senior positions'
 - Are subject to a disqualification order or a disqualification undertaking under the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986;
 - Are subject to an order made under section 429(2)(b) of the Insolvency Act 1986 (failure to pay under county court administration order);
 - Are disqualified from acting as a trustee by virtue of any provision in the Companies Act 2006;
 - Are disqualified from acting as a trustee due to section 178 of the Charities Act 2011;
 - Has been removed from the office of charity trustee or trustee for a charity by an order made by the Charity Commission or the High Court on the grounds of any misconduct or mismanagement in the administration of the charity for which he was responsible; or to which he was privy; or which he, by his conduct, contributed to or facilitated;
 - Has been convicted of any criminal offence, excluding any that have been spent under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 as amended, and excluding any offence for which the maximum sentence is a fine or a lesser sentence except where a person has been convicted of any offence which falls under section 178 of the Charities Act 2011;
 - Has not provided to the chair of trustees a criminal records certificate at an enhanced disclosure level under section 113B of the Police Act 1997. In the event that the certificate discloses any information which would in the opinion of either the Chair of Trustees or the Chief Executive Officer confirm their suitability to work with children that person shall be disqualified. If a dispute arises as to whether a person shall be disqualified, a referral shall be made to the Secretary of State to determine the matter. The determination of the Secretary of State shall be final.
 - Has been removed by the trustees in circumstances where they consider (acting reasonably) that it is in the best interests of NAT to remove the individual (including where there has been a breach of NAT's governors' code of conduct).
 - Refuse to consent to any checks required by the Secretary of State.
 - Are found to be unsuitable to be a trustee by the Secretary of State.
